April 03, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Student Movers offer A-rated and award-winning services throughout the State of California. The team makes moving hassle-free, affordable and efficient.

Student Movers is pleased to announce that it has partnered with companies such as UHaul, Penske, Budget, and PODs in order to expand its services through California. The company is devoted to making moves effortless and cost-effective. The entire process is handled efficiently and affordably by the professional team. The work force is well-educated, courteous and highly skilled. Their philosophy of service has won numerous awards for excellent service to customers.

According to a spokesperson for the company, "We are part of the Pro-Mover Foundation of California and abide by all the state regulations regarding packing storage and moving. Our services are available through California, from Balboa Island to Huntington Beach. We make moving easy and convenient, with everything from scheduling a move to unpacking at your new property. Booking is easy to schedule, using the simple form on our website. Our customer service representative will respond quickly in order to confirm your request."

Customers can pick the time that is most convenient for the move. Household goods can be stored at economical prices if needed. The move can be scheduled for same-day service if needed, although more advance notice is preferred. Small or large moving projects are welcomed, with the movers able to provide all types of packing and moving services for residential or commercial projects. The professionals can do the disassembling and reassembling as required.

The professional movers offer two levels of service, the comprehensive package and the labor only service. The full service includes transportation, labor and all necessary equipment for moving, including ropes, dollies, pads and blankets. The company includes insurance coverage for possessions and for the people who help with the packing, loading, transportation and unpacking. This means an extra level of peace of mind for each of the clients. There is no need for the worry, stress and frustration that goes along with moving.
