

Realtor In Charlotte NC Announces Sellers Market

April 17, 2017

April 17, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Charlotte Home Experts in Charlotte, North Carolina, recently announced that the real estate market is primed for sellers. Tiffany Johannes, a representative for the real estate agency, announced that it is truly a seller's market.

"Interest rates are relatively low right now," Johannes says. "If you've been thinking of selling, now is definitely the time to get your home on the market and take advantage of those rates for buyers."

The real estate firm, which can be seen at <http://charlottehomeexperts.com/realtor-charlotte-nc-agents/>, has helped thousands of home buyers and sellers over the years, and say that they take pride in customizing the experience for each individual.

"We work with you; for you," says Johannes. "Our goal is to get you into the home of your dreams or to help you sell your existing home for the highest possible value to ensure that you are completely satisfied with our services."

Johannes says that Charlotte offers a number of amenities and features which make it a prime location for the real estate market. She states that anyone owning a home in the area who is thinking of selling should take advantage of the fact that Charlotte Home Experts has local agents, those who are native to the region and can help buyers to better appreciate all that Charlotte has to offer. More on area features can be seen at <http://charlottehomeexperts.com/sell-my-house-fast-charlotte/>.

Charlotte Home Experts has years of experience in real estate and a staff of knowledgeable licensed realtors to assist with buying or selling. The company states that they have a commitment to put every client's need above their own and that they focus on utilizing their time, skill, and experience to the best interest of every seller and buyer. They offer a 100 percent client satisfaction with the services that they offer and state that they value past clients who have given them the privilege of selling more than 130 homes and over $40 million worth of real estate in just the past year alone.
