Coach and author Diane L. Haworth is speaking on "Love in Action" at the inaugural "Peace, Love, Unity NOW" gathering April 23 at the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, DC.

Haworth is the author of "How to Choose Love When You Just Want to Slap Somebody." The book provides that relief with fast, easy and effective tools to manage personal stress in the face of life's uncertainties.

"Spiritual leaders who are feeling pulled to work together to coordinate and enhance the efforts of those who trying to understand how to positively impact the current world situation through peaceful means," said Haworth. "This event begins a movement to do just that: use the energy of peace, love and unity to raise the vibration of ourselves, our country and the world to benefit all."

"I'm thrilled Diane is bringing her unique perspective on love to our event! I wanted her to be part of this gathering of like-minded people in the DC area and around the world via Facebook Live as we use meditation and other spiritual tools to promote peace, love and unity during these unsettling times," said organizer Melissa Feick.

Melissa Feick is an intuitive, healer, and spiritual teacher who was divinely guided to create the "Peace Love Unity NOW" event. She has over 20 years of experience in the metaphysical and spiritual fields. For more information about "Peace, Love, Unity NOW" visit www.peaceloveunitynow.com.
