Von Kaenel Real Estate Group in Los Gatos, California, has announced an upcoming event that is designed to help seniors prepare for their golden years. The group's free seminar on senior living options is set to be held on Friday, April 21, 2017. The seminar will begin at 9:30 a.m. and run until 11:30 a.m. PDT at The Terraces of Los Gatos.

Karen Fornash, a representative for Von Kaenel Real Estate Group, says, "We hope you will come out and join us for a complimentary breakfast and the seminar which will provide you with The Complete Solution with regards to your next stage of life."

The company says that the seminar will provide senior citizens and their families with information regarding the available options for senior living and when the decision to move should be made. Other topics will include downsizing and de-cluttering and how to make a smooth transition to senior living.

Mark von Kaenel with the real estate firm says, "Our Mission with The Complete Solution is to educate Bay Area seniors on their Senior Living Options and provide them with all facets of support as they explore transitioning into senior living communities." More on this can be seen on the firm's Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/VKREGroup/>.

Fornash states that the event is completely free of charge and seniors and their families can register online. She urges those interested in attending to register as early as possible as there is limited seating available.

Transitioning from home to a senior living community is a cause for concern for a number of seniors. Fornash states that these concerns should be put to rest with the information that is provided in the seminar and that any senior considering this transition should make plans to attend.
