April 17, 2017 -

Denver, Colo. ? Express Employment Professionals, a top staffing agency in Denver, CO, is celebrating their office anniversary this month. 16 years ago on April 30th, Express Denver opened its doors and began providing employment services to both businesses looking for employees and local job seekers looking to find employment.

Express Denver Owner Sharon Hendricks said, ?We are so proud to be a part of the Denver business community, look forward to many more anniversaries to come.?

Express Denver strives to actively help job seekers and local business by having a goal of changing the lives of people by making sure to provide as many jobs in Denver, CO, as they can to as many people possible and they have proven to reach that goal with the support of their community.

?Thank you to all of our clients and associates for believing in us and we are so ready to continue putting more and more people to work each year,? said Hendricks.

The team looks forward to helping the community for many more years and trying their best to reach their goal every day. In fact, Express Employment Professionals is a world-wide company who makes it a goal to put over 1 million people to work, annually. Express in Denver consistently works towards helping meet that global goal and is proud to service the Denver community.
