

PCG Recruiters Hiring Physical Therapists In Virginia Beach

April 25, 2017

April 25, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Pemberton Consulting Group, LLC has announced that they are currently recruiting physical therapists in Virginia Beach and Norfolk, Virginia for employment in the home health care industry. PCG Recruiters assists home care and hospice industries in attracting and hiring medical and executive talent.

James Pemberton, founder and owner of Pemberton Consulting Group, says, "We are currently looking to fill a number of positions in home care. These physical therapy jobs entail traveling to patients' homes and providing the treatment that they need."

Pemberton states that physical therapists who are looking for a rewarding career in the mentioned areas should contact the company and arrange for an interview. He states that the company works with candidates and employers to ensure that both are equally satisfied with the employment arrangement. The company has placed a high number of employees with companies over the years and Pemberton says that they always ensure that both parties are satisfied.

"You want a job that is rewarding and an employer that treats you well," Pemberton adds. "Our goal is to connect you with the employer that provides you all the job benefits you want and at the same time, connect you with your skills to an employer who needs you."

More on the openings can be seen at PCG Healthcare Recruiters - Facebook. The company states that they regularly update their Facebook page with information about new job opportunities and invite qualified candidates to like their page to stay updated as new opportunities come in.

Pemberton says that for employers, the company takes care of the difficult task of finding and hiring employees to fill critical shortage jobs. He states that the company's mission is to help home health care professionals who are searching for a new career path and to assist employers in finding the candidate of their dreams. The company also assists client companies with retention for staff when possible as opposed to new hires.

Those interested in applying or in learning of new opportunities can visit the company on their official website or learn more about the company and its founder by visiting James Pemberton on LinkedIn.

###

For more information about Pemberton Consulting Group, LLC, contact the company here: Pemberton Consulting Group, LLC James Pemberton (888) 959-9324 James@pcgreruiters.com 1817 Leedom Rd. Virginia Beach, VA 23464

Pemberton Consulting Group, LLC

PCG Recruiters is a Healthcare Executive Search Firm delivering highly skilled Healthcare executives and professionals on a permanent or contract basis to Home Health and Hospice companies in the United States.

Website: <https://www.pcgrecruiters.com>

Email: James@pcgreruiters.com

Phone: (888) 959-9324

Powered by PressAdvantage.com