One of the Leading Staffing Agencies in Seattle Commemorates Associates

April 26, 2017

April 26, 2017 -
Seattle, Wash. ? Express Employment Professionals being one of the top staffing agencies in Seattle, WA, takes the time to show their gratitude towards their staff members for Administrative Professionals Day. This day recognizes workers in the Administrative field and lets them know that their work has not gone unnoticed no matter how big or small.

Express Seattle Franchise Owner Michael Lee said, ?Administrative Professionals Day is a day to celebrate our administrative workers for being the best employees they can be and for all the effort they exhibit when they step foot into the office."

Express Employment Professionals is known across the world for their mission of putting a million people to work each year and this cannot be possible without great employees. There are over 700 worldwide locations and they strive to change people?s lives for the better.

?The hard work of our staff and associates is witnesses daily and we wouldn?t be one of the top staffing agencies without every single one of them,? Lee said.

The local team works positively with placing candidates with employment in Seattle, WA. By helping people meet their needs or jump start a career is just one small step in reaching the overall goal of the company.
