

Kids Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu Gi From Dojo Pro Discounted To Celebrate Launch

June 10, 2015

June 10, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

To celebrate the launch of their new child-sized Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu gi, Dojo Pro Limited is slashing the retail price from $120 down to $89. This special offer will only be available for a short time.

The Dojo Pro Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu gi has been designed with function and comfort at the forefront. This uniform features premium quality 100% cotton soft peal weave. Comfortable against the skin and lightweight, this uniform allows the body to stay cool even during intense competitions.

Owner Brett Kraiger talked about the unique Dojo Pro design. He said "Despite this gi being light and soft, the material is exceptionally strong and will withstand tough conditions without ripping or fraying - all the important stress points are triple stitched for superior reinforcement.". He also mentioned that the sleeves and leg cuffs are tapered and make it difficult for the opponent to grasp.

As the uniform is designed especially for children, Dojo Pro has ensured that there are a range of size options available. To provide plenty of room to move and accommodate developing bodies, Dojo Pro advises to purchase the size above the child's current height. For added convenience, these Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu martial arts uniforms are pre-shrunk and quick drying.

It's important to follow the care instructions when washing and drying to ensure that the gi stays in good condition. Available in white, black, and blue, there are color options to suit individual tastes. Already selling fast, Dojo Pro anticipates this current special sales event (on Amazon.com) to be a big success.

The company was established by two martial arts experts, with more than 50 years of combined martial arts experience and more than a decade in martial arts retail.
