Cleanly Maids offers convenient residential main services in the Portland, Oregon area. The company is known for its flat rate pricing and amazing customer service.

Tampa FL: Cleanly Maids and Joshua Morales are pleased to announce that the new location in Portland, OR provides flat rate pricing for its convenient residential maid services in the city. Prospective customers can book online easily and conveniently. Open days and times are available to see online and a maid service can be scheduled in just a couple minutes. Flat rate pricing is simple and easy to follow. Customers can book exactly the services they want at the price they expect.

The cleaning service Portland team offers a number of flexible options, including standard, recurring and deep cleanings. Each of the options provides the same great level of service which customers deserve and desire. The types of cleanings offered by the company include standard cleaning, which is just the basics, deep cleaning and move in or out cleaning.

The standard cleaning can be completed on a regular schedule. It provides basic attention in the kitchen, bathrooms, bedrooms and other areas. Customers can enjoy a clean refrigerator and counter tops, with gleaming appliances, stove, sink and microwaves. The bathroom fixtures, including toilets, sink, tub and shower are scrubbed and mirrors and counter tops are also cleaned. General areas are dusted, vacuumed and mopped and bins are emptied as required. The workers clean baseboards, light switches and window ledges.

There are good reasons to choose the Portland maid services. They are able to save time, providing the highest quality services. Every cleaner is thoroughly interviewed and background checks and reference checks are carefully scrutinized. Scheduling is easy to accomplish online. Customers just select the number of bedrooms and bathrooms, preferred date and time and the company does the rest. Seamless communication via email, phone or text is available and payment online is safe and convenient.

The new location in Portland (portland.cleanlymaids.com) is comparable to other locations around the country. The Tampa-based firm relies on quality service and a high level of competence to accomplish its goals.
