Michael Pritschow, who is the spokesperson for the Argyle Youth Sports Association, has announced registration is now open for the Fall 2015 soccer season. To find out more information, interested parties simply need to go to the registration page of the Argyle Youth Sports Association website.

For those who qualify, a family discount plan and financial aid are available. The family plan will provide a 15% discount on sports and activity fees to households that have 3 or more registrations for the Fall AYSA activities. These activities include youth football, youth volleyball, youth soccer, youth drill team and youth cheerleading. The Association explained that one registration is equivalent to one child that is partaking in one activity. Therefore, for one household to qualify for a family discount, it would be as follows: one child that partakes in one activity plus one or more children that partakes in two or more activities would qualify, or, two or more children that partake in two or more activities each or three or more children that partake in one or more activities each.

The financial aid scholarships are scholarships based on the annually income of the household. The scholarships include registration fees, team uniforms and equipment fees. Refundable deposits are the responsibility of the family. For a more detailed explanation, registrants are encouraged to visit the Argyle Youth Sports Association's website. All registrants are asked to go carefully through the contact information and sign consents that they provide to make sure that it is accurate. Once all the forms of being filled out properly, they will then be able to submit payment.

The Argyle youth sports Association stated that they take security very seriously, so when applicants make payment, they can be confident all that information will be handled through a secure server. Michael Pritschow made the following statement, "We completely understand the concerns people have with buying anything online. However, please be assured that all credit card information, and other personal information, that the applicant provides is completely secure, as we use the best encrypted technology available."

AYSA made the following statement, "The Argyle Youth Sports Association (AYSA) is a non-profit organization made up of volunteers who help organize and promote youth sports leagues in the Argyle Independent School District." Michael Pritschow added that the Argyle youth sports Association's mission is to implant in their youth the ideals of good sportsmanship.
