2017 TNVOC Veteran Support Champions of the Year - Paul & Sabrina Osterman Family ? BAR VIÑEDO Restaurant

2017 TNVOC Partner Member of the Year - Jaymee Lomax ? San Diego Gas & Electric (SDG&E)

2017 TNVOC Community Partner of the Year - Dr. Pamela Williamson ? Women?s Business Enterprise Council-West

2017 TNVOC Community Partner of the Year - Rainey A. Alben ? Institute for Supply Management (ISM)

2017 TNVOC Veteran Business Champion of the Year - Salt River Project (SRP)

2017 TNVOC President?s Award - Lt. Gen. Michael E. Williamson ? U.S. Army Acquisition Support Center (USAASC)"

TNVOC, based in Los Angeles, California started its prelaunch operation in 2016 and registered over 1,500 Veteran Owned Businesses (VOBs), and sent out an average of over 2,500 Procurement Opportunities on a daily basis. TNVOC has a dynamic virtual business environment which allows for interactive relationship building, which is critical for doing business.

Ben Fatola, TNVOC Vice President stated, "Salt River Project (SRP) and other corporations and agencies across the country that are committed to supporting diverse businesses, now have an organization in TNVOC where they can truly get the support they need to source Veteran Owned Businesses (VOBs). We at TNVOC recognize our job does not end once a corporation becomes a member of our portal. We are in a unique position to help corporations make direct business contact with VOBs and facilitate the development of strategic alliances and relationship building, all within our portal."

Mr. Fatola emphasized, "TNVOC?s online portal is more than just a database of Veteran Owned Businesses. It?s different from any other portal. Our systems empower VOBs with the latest technology, to not only discover corporate and government procurement opportunities as soon as they are released, but also has an interactive environment within the portal to communicate with agencies as well as other VOBs."

Veteran business owners can search for local and national business procurement opportunities available specifically for Veterans. Instant daily or weekly email notifications are also sent as soon as a Corporate and/or Government RFP are released.
