June 01, 2017 -
New York SEO Authority, a digital marketing agency in New York, NY, is proud to announce that they have moved to a new office in the city. The company offers free website audits for all its clients, and has a tenured staff of seasoned veterans that have ranked every kind of business, from Fortune 500 companies to mom and pop shops, on the major search engines. They encourage everyone to check out their services, or visit them in their new office along Broadway.

Garrett Laidler from New York SEO Authority says: "Being the #1 New York SEO Expert, we make it our business to know everything there is to know about how to help your business in online marketing. Let us get you to the top. We take great pride in everything that we do, and we have set ourselves apart as being one of the best when it comes to SEO. We are happy to have been able to open a new office in New York, from where we will be able to better serve our clients."

NYC SEO Authority offers full service digital marketing. This includes content marketing, website SEO (search engine optimization) services, local promotion, retargeting advertising, web design, and web development. Their work follows a proven five step process: meet & greet, investigate, create & execute, test & improve, and success. The fact that this strategy works is shown in the wealth of positive reviews that the company has received.

"Our flower shop was close to going out of business as our customer base was slowly dying off. We decided to get NYC SEO Authority for help," says Scott on the company's website. "While our expectations were low, with the search results after 3 months there was a 90% increase in flower orders and 40% more New Yorker's walk in traffic. We are quickly recovering from our bad times." The company has also asked others to join their Facebook page, where they can leave more visible results.

New York SEO Authority looks forward to working with many more clients. As a recognized expert in this field of work, they are looking forward to a bright future.
