

Lea Louise's Baby Foot Reviews Lead To Exfoliating Mask For Feet Selling Out Yet Again

June 29, 2015

June 29, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Lea Louise, a health and beauty company in Hawthorne, CA is happy to announce that their Baby Soft Foot Deep Exfoliation & Intense Callus Feet Peel product is back in stock once again. When first released, it sold out very quickly, which was more than the company could have expected. Looking at the various customer reviews of people stating they were experiencing younger smoother feet, however, they felt there was clearly a need to stock up on much more inventory for a re-release.

"We couldn't believe how quickly our product sold out!", says Adrian Lew from Lea Louise. "We just couldn't keep up with demand. And then the reviews started to pour in as well, and we just knew that we had to replenish our stocks right away. We should have enough to serve everyone now!"

As a way to say thank you to their loyal, returning customers, as well as to apologize for running out of stock, the product is currently available with a 37% discount for a limited time only. Rather than the usual $43, it is now available for just $27. This means even more people should have the opportunity to experience younger smoother feet.

The product is designed to address rough skin on the feet, as well as the thick callous that often builds up there. It helps feet look and feel softer and nicer, by reducing wrinkles and fine lines in just two weeks. Additionally, it helps to address foot odor at the same time. The product is very easy to use and delivers much better results than foot scrapers or pumice stones, as it will not damage the new skin that is underneath the callous.

One of the things that came up during reviews several times is that people find it such good value for money. This is also due to the fact that two easy packs are included in each purchase, rather than the single packs most similar products offer. "First of all, I could not be more impressed with the passion, quality and beauty of this product", says Stephanie. "Customer service has been phenomenal and shipping was so fast. The product was packaged with great care and arrived on my doorstep within just days of my order. I cannot wait to use this product and will leave a follow up review on my results! A+++"

The product currently also comes with a few bonuses. This includes the salon nail shiner, which can be used on toe and fingernails alike to create a beautiful, healthy shine. It also includes a free eBook, which is a guide to creating and maintaining beautiful feet. No more need for expensive spa and pedicure visits, Lea Louise offers it all.
