Greenville, SC. - Beemer Residential Roofing, Greenville's top roofing company, is announcing its affiliation with the ?KangaRoof®? name. This means that Beemer Residential Roofing is now called ?Beemer KangaRoof®,? and is a part of the elite Roofers Success International organization.

Currently, only ten roofing companies nationwide have this distinction to be known as a ?KangaRoof®?.

Beemer KangaRoof® has been serving homeowners in the Greenville area for 40 years, and is owned by Kenny Beemer. It now employs 3 generations of family members who are all working hard to maintain the reputation of excellent and timely service.

As part of the new name, the company also has introduced the ?We Hop to It? distinction. This means if you call, particularly with an emergency situation, Beemer KangaRoof® will definitely ?hop to it!? And if they don't show up within the promised time, you'll be given $50.

Another benefit for homeowners in Greenville is the opportunity to become part of the ?Overhead Care Club?,? which offers club members annual inspections, gutter cleaning, and priority guaranteed appointments at a discounted rate.

Beemer KangaRoof® is a member of the Greenville Better Business Bureau with an A+ rating.
