

Charles Sampson Is Hilton Head Plantation Realtor Of The Year For The Third Time

June 12, 2017

June 12, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

The Charles Sampson Group of Charter One Realty, based in Hilton Head Island, SC, has announced with pride that Charles Sampson has been voted Hilton Head Realtor of the Year for the third year running. This year, he has been recognized particularly for his work with the Bridge to Hilton Head Homes project. This is a project that encourages people to purchase Hilton Head Island homes now, as prices have been rising rapidly.

Charles Sampson himself says: "Charles Sampson Group of Charter One Realty has a number of affordable Hilton Head Island home values right now, which have been made more interesting because home prices have been going up. That is why we are telling our clients to buy at the current prices. Furthermore, Hilton Head Island is a true Southern Gem, and we know people will be exceedingly happy there."

The Charles Sampson Group offers a number of key services to clients. These include real estate sales, help for homeowners to sell their homes, and relocation services. Furthermore, they have the featured properties Hilton Head Island with Charles Sampson option, which are property listings that have something of particular interest to them. This may be something like being a new listing, being close to particular amenities, or having a recent price drop, to name a few. Currently, the featured property list has a number of units and homes, offering something of interest for everybody.

Those who have worked with the realty, and particularly with Charles Sampson, in the past, have had nothing but good things to say about their experience. "By far, the most knowledgeable real estate professional in Hilton Head Island," says Edward G. on the real estate agency's website. "Charles is passionate about his work and provides tremendous insight and service. This is why he has won Realtor of the Year 3 times. I would always recommend Charles to anyone who is moving to Hilton Head Island. As HHITV puts it, Charles Sampson is the go to guy for home buying in Hilton Head Island."

Those interested are encouraged to contact Charles Sampson-3 Time Hilton Head Realtor of The Year as soon as possible.
