Hoot's Naturals, a company in Spring Hill, TN, is celebrating the second anniversary of the release of their popular beard balm. Over the past two years, over 7,000 units have been sold. They have also received in excess of 700 reviews, with a rating of 4.5 stars on the Amazon marketplace. The company has pointed out that they are committed to ensuring that their products are always the best, while also being organic and ethically sourced.

Ricky Hooter, owner and founder of Hoot's Naturals, says: "Our beard balm has been popular for two years now. It comes in a 3.5 oz container and is a fragrance-less oil and butter beard balm. This leave-in balm is both a softener and a conditioner, helping to strengthen and thicken the beard, while also allowing men to style their facial growth. We're happy to celebrate its second anniversary and we really want to thank our clients for their continued trust and support."

To celebrate its two years of being available to the public, they have now made the balm available in a bigger package. Most beard balms now come in a 2 oz package, but the Hoot's Naturals product is 3.5 oz in size. It is made from earthy herbals, suitable for both the mustache and the beard. Because the product also contains rosemary extract and jojoba oil, it helps to remove the dreaded itch and avoid dandruff.

The ingredients of the product, its effectiveness, and the fact that it is now available in a larger container are just three of the things many customers have noted as being so beneficial. "With a full bushy beard I go through a lot of beard balm and thus I have made an effort to try the different vendors that are out there instead of sticking to just one. Hoot's is a solid good quality balm that will soften any beard and care for that craggy face of yours underneath. Hoot's Naturals still comes in the tin which is becoming more and more rare this days and goes on light and not oily....," says an Amazon customer.

Hoot's Naturals is so committed to the quality of its products that they even offer a 100% satisfaction guarantee.
