People the world over, love Scotland and Scottish culture. The opulent Solas candles range embodies all that it is to be Scottish: embracing elements of the traditional Gaelic homestead, and contemporary, chic vibe that is modern Scotland.

With their unique Scottish theme, natural ingredients and pure fragrances, Solas Candles were poised to succeed from launch day. To celebrate this huge early success, Solas Lifestyle are extending a special offer to their candle customers. To thank their loyal and growing fan base, Solas is currently offering 30% off the total price with the purchase of 3 candles or more. This offer is valid for all customers for a limited time period.

The Solas range, which is available exclusively to Amazon scented candle customers in the United States, has found favor with several candle lovers and boasts a perfect five star rating. One customer wrote: "I had never really liked candles before until I was exposed to well made ones. This natural soy one burns so well and evenly and the scent is awesome, it's very subtle and relaxing. I like to light it when it's quiet and I'm in my favorite chair reading a book. The bergamot and lime gives the room such a refreshing smell. I'm really happy with this purchase, and now I know what to give as the perfect hostess gift!"

Mo ghràdh bithbhuan is Solas Gaelic strapline meaning My Love Forever. Once someone has embraced the Solas culture, it's a love forever, founder Cheryl MacDonald tells us, Solas is Modern Scotland.
