Chicago, IL (June 30, 2017) Troy Warren host of HealthRadioRX.com, is pleased to introduce as its President, Mike Adams.

Warren said, "A creative, visionary executive as well as a results oriented strategic planner, Adams is a proven leader in managing rapid corporate growth and global expansion successfully from start up to maturity, and we're very excited to have him on our team."

Under his direction, Mike Adams led his previous company from start up to over $100 million in yearly revenue within the first two years and his company was recognized as a top 100 Global Direct Sales Company by year two.

Ellen Britt, VP of Education & Science for HealthRadioRX commented, "I am delighted to be working alongside such an accomplished professional who has an enormous passion for the health field."

Adams other notable achievements include leading the growth of an independent sales force to more than 100,000 consultants in the first three years, directing a successful company expansion across North America and the United Kingdom plus spearheading an aggressive business and home essential services roll out resulting in more than 250,000 customers within two and a half years. Mike was also instrumental in the negotiated purchase of a worldwide anti-aging patent with a product roll out resulting in more than $3 million in revenue in the first year.

Adams commented, "I am truly excited to be at the very beginning of a company with products backed by science and its formulas created by one of the top stem cell scientists in the world, Dr. Dwain Morris-Irvin."

A native of Toronto, Canada, Mike holds a degree in Business Administration from Humber College in Toronto. Mike and his family reside in the Dallas, Texas area.
