It is for this purpose that focus has been shifted to the best options that community can provide for senior living communities. After months of extensive research, National Press Distributors has revealed a new report focusing on the most customer centric senior living communities.

The basics are exceptional with Cascade Group - The Willows Bellingham (www.thewillowsbellingham.com), and that's just the beginning. Their "LifeMinded" program is an elite option and one of the best of its kind. The program does an excellent job in accommodating seniors and helping build lasting relationships. This is one of the nicest senior living communities in the region and continues to do so to the highest of standards. Families and seniors are recommended to put this on top of their list. It is exceptional in all ways and is well-recognized for the work it does in the region.

Claire Rhoads on Senioradvisor.com said, "We viewed the facility and mom picked out her room after spent time with us carefully listening to what my mom's wants and needs were. She moved in last weekend and is already settled in. She is happy there and her alcove studio loooks very nice."

Another one of the most experienced senior living communities is Highgate Senior Living. It provides a resolute option for families to choose. Highgate Senior Living has become a renowned choice and one that continues to grow as the years go by. It is a well-spaced community with clean facilities and professional staff. It is regarded for having great food and for providing the basics a senior requires. While the program might not be on the level of the "LifeMinded" options, they do provide high-grade results and are worth considering.

Tiffany Sigler on Facebook said, "I am very impressed with the care my grandma receives at Highgate! We always know she is cared for and loved! Thanks to all the loving and caring staff!! They are the best!!"

Next on the list if Hamilton Place Senior Living. Seeing magnificent structure as soon as one drives in does exude a sense of excellence for a senior community. Hamilton Place Senior Living is one of those well-established names that have worked hard on building a robust community. The staff is great, and the attention to detail is what makes it a recognized name. Hamilton Place Senior Living has become a great option for assisted living in all respects.

Caring0006 on Caring.com said, "I'm looking at Hamilton Place as the one I am going to choose. It's more like something I would prefer to live in. It was quieter, and to me it looked like a little more organized or well-kept. The second and third floors even have balconies whereas in the other place, only the bottom floor had a patio. It was a little more expensive, but it seemed to be a little bit bigger and I liked the looks of it."

Spring Creek by Bonaventure?s beautiful walking paths, professional staff, and high-quality facilities are just the tip of the iceberg for this senior community. It is a world-class option that has earned high respect among its peers. Spring Creek by Bonaventure is one of those classic senior living communities that is heralded for its arrangement and progression into an elite option.

Eugene5 on Caring.com said, "Spring Creek by Bonaventure was a very nice place with a good location, living options, and things to do in the activities room. They could choose the number of meals they want per day. They had different kinds of care, from independent living to Alzheimer's to partial nursing care. We saw nice two-bedroom apartments, one with a bath and one with shower."

To wrap up the list, The Leopold Retirement Residence earns a spot as an excellent retirement residence. This is a well-established leader and one that has engrained itself among the local community. It is clean, spacious, and well-run from top to bottom. While it doesn't have the robust programs as some of the other choices, it does hold itself to high standards.

Dylan Santos Green on Facebook said, "The Leopold's recent interior improvements are modern and elegant ? a revival of its historic qualities but also a step into the future. I've attended a few events recently (late 2016) that boasted appetizing meals and vibrant ambiance."

These are the top five options for locals, and each one is elite in its own way. They are the best for a reason that continues to transcend through competition.
