New NPD Report Shows Top Customer Centric Real Estate Agents In Seattle

July 25, 2017

July 25, 2017 -
Seattle's bubbling real estate market has made it an eventful setting for investors. Buyers and sellers are diving in headfirst looking to maximize the assets. This has led to a demand for top-tier real estate agents who can provide comprehensive results. For investors and potential clients wanting quality agents, it's come time to look at the leading names in Seattle.These are the top five real estate agents who continue to meet the needs of local clients and have established a solid base of results.

With time-efficient processes, a thorough setup, and a comprehensive portfolio of results Sell Seattle (www.sellseattle.com) has become a winner in the local real estate market. Seattle clients are listing this as their top option, and the results are overwhelming. This team has provided incredible results around the clock and has churned superior numbers in the recent past. Their illustrious history and constant desire for success have pushed them to the top of the recommended list.They are a leader in the local area and have become a fantastic option for all clients.

Matt Broweleit on Facebook said, "Jed is great. We moved from Denver to Seattle recently and Jed helped us every step of the way. Even from Colorado, he was proactive in understanding our needs and desires and working to find the perfect home for us. Seattle is an incredibly competitive real estate market right now. We needed someone with experience and tenacity who would fight to get what we needed. Thanks, Jed!"

Real estate isn't an exact science but Windermere Real Estate - Madison Park has become a torch bearer for high-quality techniques. Buyers and sellers have promoted this company as being an illustrious option with a range of tricks up its sleeves. The team is compact, professional, and time-efficient from start to finish.For those in search of a complete real estate agent with great results, this is one of the better options on the market right now.

One of the reviews on Google is "Darcy La Belle is fantastic. In addition to being hard-working and professional, she is refreshingly creative in identifying solutions for clients' needs."

Among the top names in real estate, The George Beasley Group has the skill set and professionalism to reach the highest of standards. This is a quality real estate option for prospective clients wanting a leg up on the competition moving forward. They have prominent experience in the local area and have continued to work with a host of clients.This sets the stage for positive results and is a quality option for all clients wanting premium service.

MichelleCotton5 on Zillow said, "George was a fantastic realtor and I would highly recommend using him as an agent. We were purchasing a house from out of state and George did all he could to accommodate us with out being able to see the house in person. He coordinated everything we needed to make sure we felt comfortable with out purchase. His advice and experience make him an asset in purchasing in the Seattle area. He helped us navigate a competitive market with confidence. We had six bids on the house we got, and we directly attribute our success to George. He is the best!"

With realtors, the goal is to pick those who have years of experience and understand the market better than anyone else. Lake & Company Real Estate is one of those names that has established itself as a quality option. They have considerable expertise in Seattle and have a good feel for the market as a whole.The team is professional and courteous making the experience a smooth one for all clients.

Renaud Chomette on Google said, "I was a first time buyer and did not know anything about condo purchases. I went to Lake & Co. and worked with Aune Tietz (Borker). The whole process was made stress free thanks to clear and concise information distilled by Aune on a regular basis. She explained the many steps, the paperwork and the real estate market in Seattle. Aune is an extremely trustworthy person (she'll give them the pros and will not omit the cons) who made sure that I was taken care of well and happy with my final decision. I highly recommend her services!"

Kim and her team, Team Diva Real Estate are a simple option for clients wanting a committed firm behind them every step of the way. They might not have the clout of the other firms but do pack a punch with their experience. This is a well-established option and a great one for local clients in Seattle.

Christopher B. on Yelp said, "These ladies know how to work. Every transaction that I've had with them has been nothing short of an awesome experience. I have also attended their "Divas take the Hill" which benefitted a local charity, Peace for the Streets by Kids from the Streets. These two lovely ladies not only create the community, they are helping the people around them that need it most. I can't think of any other group that I will continue to do business with. I highly recommend Team Diva, Kim, Chavi, Rocky and Roy to anyone I hear is looking to rent or to buy."

Choose between these leaders and know the real estate market will open up in ways one would never have expected.
