

San Antonio Residents Relish In Superior Kids Haircuts

June 22, 2015

June 22, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

San Antonio, TX based salon, Kutz 4 Kidz, has announced that their cuts are raising the bar in the Alamo Ranch area. The salon is relatively new, having just set up shop in 2014, but their service has been described as extraordinary. The experience and unique one of a kind family-oriented services bring a little something extra to the industry than many competitors in the area could only hope to achieve. Owner and operator, Janae Esparza, has stated the following regarding the reason that so many are choosing this establishment for their family's cuts and styling:

"While Kutz 4 Kidz may not be the only business with this kind of offering, local residents are choosing Kutz 4 Kidz because we put our customers' satisfaction above everything else."

This statement is validated by a quick glance at the company's Facebook page, which offers photos of children and parents smiling and interacting at the salon, along with a bright and cheerful view of the wholesome decor inside. The staff is said to be enthusiastic, hard-working, and engaging, which is something that children love when they must sit still for a haircut. The company has also stated that they enjoy working with the entire family, from a child's first cut to teen prom updos, to adult styling.

Another aspect of Kutz 4 Kidz that raises the bar in this region is that while their services are described as being high quality, their prices are considered very affordable, which may offer some solace to families with multiple children, not wishing to break the bank. Kutz 4 Kidz offers bright, colorful seating, cheerful animations, and fun elements such as motorcycle and sports cars to play pretend in while the professional team attends to hair.

Customers interested in trying the salon are encouraged to visit their social media page at facebook.com/kutz4kidzSA. This offers information on location, pricing, and promotions provided by the company. This is also a place that Kutz 4 Kidz hopes their client base will utilize for discussion, comments, and customer testimonials, so that they can check out the positive feedback and interact with those who enjoy their services.

For kids haircuts and cuts for the whole family, the company asks that families look no further than Kutz 4 Kidz, and invite anybody who is skeptical about their services to come in and check them out. Most of the success that the salon has felt thus far has come from seeing and interacting with clients and potential clients as they enter the salon. The staff believes that sometimes seeing is believing, and that once parents take a look at the child friendly environment, they won't want to take their children anywhere else.

For those who wish to have further insight on the company and their practices, the Facebook page does offer a section where past clients have left comments and reviews. This offers new customers the option to seeing what others have thought and measuring the staff up for themselves before visiting. Currently, the majority of the feedback is positive, proving that the opinions of superior services supplied by this establishment are shared by those they serve.
