July 28, 2017 -
The Billy Goat, a landscaping Miami company, has proudly announced being named as Miami's Premier Residential & Commercial Landscaper in a community poll. One of the things in particular that stood out about the company was the commitment to customer satisfaction, something that is at the forefront of all of the landscaper's activities. Indeed, it is this commitment and the overall quality of work that has already won the company other awards.

Danny from The Billy Goat says: "We love our job with a passion, but what we love even more is to see happy customers. To have been voted as premier landscaper in Miami is a true honor and we will do everything we can to continue to deserve that recognition."

As a commercial and residential landscaper Miami residents and businesses trust, the company has received other awards including the 2011 USCA Best of Local Business, Miami Award in Landscaping and the Building of America Plaque of Honor. The plaque of honor, meanwhile, was given for their exceptional quality of work at the Allamanda Elementary School.

Indeed, the company is now so popular that they have even been featured in the Ocean Drive Insider. This came not just because of winning several awards, but also as a result of the many positive reviews and testimonials the company has received. Hugh J., for instance, says on their website: "It was a pleasure working with The Billy Goat on the Carter Square project in Kendall (Dade County), Florida. As the Landscape Architect, I found your company to be responsive to the needs of the client and always accommodating in regards to field adjustments and/or plan revisions. The project was completed on time as promised."

The Billy Goat aims to continue to deliver the best commercial landscaping Miami has to offer and now covers a wider geographical area. This area includes Ft.
