

FunGig Hires New Intern Mason Miguel

July 20, 2017

July 20, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

San Diego, California, July 19, 2017 - FunGig, a new company in San Diego that connects Funseekers with in-the-know people who know what to do in San Diego today, announced the hiring of a new intern, Mason Miguel. Mason is a Business Administration major with a minor in Marketing at the University of San Diego who is about to enter his senior year.

Mr. Miguel has shown his dedication to hard work and his community as a member of Phi Kappa Theta National Fraternity and Rotaract Club. As a member of Phi Kappa Theta he has also volunteered for Habitat for Humanity.

FunGig is excited to have Mason Miguel as its new intern not only because of his studies in Business and Marketing, but because he fits the profile of prospective Funbassadors and Funseekers. He has played basketball since he was four and was a three-sport athlete in high school, playing basketball and tennis and competing in track and field. Additionally, he has shown his adventurous side by studying abroad in Madrid and traveling extensively throughout Europe.

He is originally from Hollister, California and is excited to work for a company that helps people find fun things to do in San Diego, his new home where he has grown to love the beaches and local music scene. His parents and his sister live in Hollister, CA and are thrilled that Mason is adding working and learning at FunGig to his studies this semester and that he is getting to be a part of a fun new company.

FunGig believes that life is for living, not passively sitting around staring at a screen. Visit www.fungig.com to sign up as a Funseeker to find great things to do in San Diego or as a Funbassador to share a skill while earning some extra spending money.
