July 22, 2017 -

Logic Inbound, a Seattle-based digital agency, have released a new list of the premier business valuation companies on the market today. After months of crunching numbers and analyzing a wide range of data and customer feedback, the following report will help business owners to choose the right valuation partner to assess their company, and give a highly accurate valuation.

Redwood Valuation Partners - http://www.redwoodvaluation.com/- the reason this company comes top of the list is that they use an extremely in-depth process to come up with valuations for clients. Founded in 2007, Redwood Valuation Partners boast an expert team, with over 50 years of combined business valuation experience. They have worked with companies ranging from small startups to multibillion-dollar corporations, making them the perfect partner for any business, large or small. In addition, their staff have previously worked in a wide variety of sectors, giving them insider knowledge that many of their competitors lack.

Sun Business Valuations- From clearly defining objectives from the offset, to wide-ranging data gathering and analysis, they take so many different factors into account in order to create a valuation that?s as precise as possible.

Woodbridge International- Specializing in businesses worth between $5-25 million, Woodbridge International is the company of choice for those looking to sell their business on the global market. Having successfully sold a wide range of businesses over the past 22 years, Woodbridge perform a comprehensive valuation based on both the business itself and the wider industry.

Conway MacKenzie- With an A+ rating from the Better Business Bureau, Conway MacKenzie provide a customer-centric approach to business valuation. As well as offering a comprehensive valuation service, they also provide a wide range of additional financial and advisory services. This means that if clients need to make any changes to improve the value of their business, Conway MacKenzie will help them to take the right steps forward.

Hilco Valuation Services- Offering a focus on asset valuation, Hilco are another company that provide a solid service to their clients. Drawing on their parent company?s experiences in the business world, this valuation service offers a more practical approach than most, taking into account the realities of business processes and practices to come up with a valuation.
