Lil' John's Big & Tall, a Pensacola men's big and tall clothing store, has announced that they have recently updated the store's website. The site now includes a gallery of not just some of the clothing items they carry, but also of the store itself. It has been noted that the gallery has had a significant impact on the number of people coming to the store.

John Thomas from Lil' John's Big & Tall says: "Our store is a popular clothing and alteration store for people who are slightly bigger or taller than the average. While we also have an online store, we really love seeing customers come through our door and developing more personal relationships with them. We are happy to see that the addition of a gallery to our website has encouraged more people to do just that, because they realize that we are not just an online shop."

While people have become taller and bigger over the past few generations, it seems that the major fashion houses have not kept up with this development, continuing to offer clothes in regular sizes only. For Lil' John's Big & Tall, this presented an opportunity to do things a little bit differently in terms of their offerings for Pensacola men's clothing, as well as women's clothing. They wanted to make sure that people could look fashionable regardless of their size and that their clothes can grow - or shrink - with them through alterations. Indeed, the store even creates custom designs for those who want it.

Those who have used the store in the past have been incredibly happy with the service they have received. Shorey M., for instance, says on the store's website: "After being unsatisfied with other establishments Lil John's took care of me, fitting me to the tee. I was pleasantly surprise to have the alterations done on the spot and walked out with my suit the same day. I will definitely use them in the future."

Indeed, Lil' John's Big and Tall Men's Fashion & Alteration Shop is becoming increasingly popular, having set itself apart as one of the most innovative shops of its kind. With a welcoming atmosphere, high quality clothing, modern designs, and the ability to make anything fit, it is no surprise that they have become the go-to store for larger clothing.
