August 01, 2017 -
Tempe, Ariz. ? Express Employment Professionals, a leading employment agency in Tempe, AZ, is proud to announce that its branch manager, Desirae Noonan, has just been awarded as the Tempe Chamber Volunteer of the Year.

As a vital member of the Chamber?s Ambassador Committee, a group of volunteers whose goal is to reach out to the community for improvements, Noonan has proved herself time and time again. She has exhibited over the year that she is dedicated to the Tempe area and volunteers at any chance she gets.

Express Tempe Branch Manager Desirae Noonan said, ?I have made more friends in the 2 years I have been a part of the Tempe Chamber than I did the 4 years I was in Illinois. It is really hard as an adult to make friends in a new city and with a new job, but the Tempe businesses have made my transition easy.?

Since moving to Tempe and having her office join the Tempe Chamber in 2015, Noonan has been integrated in the plans of the Chamber deeply. She can easily be found attending ribbon cutting events, working at community cleanups, or sitting in at meetings to strategize ways to make things better in Tempe.

Express says it?s an honor to have Noonan working so diligently in the community. It?s her ultimate goal to help the hard workers in the city land employment in Tempe, AZ, so she doesn?t plan to stop pushing for success anytime soon.

?I enjoy the community environment and support that I receive as a Tempe Chamber member,? Noonan said.
