August 03, 2017 -

The Ihara Team, a real estate agency in Honolulu, HI, will be hosting a FREE senior living options seminar. The focus of the event will be the company's The Complete Solution (TM), which has been helping clients with the challenging task of transitioning as children leave the nest and homes start to feel oversized and maintenance challenging. Seniors are invited to the event and they can bring along a guest with them to the free, no obligation senior living options seminar that will take place on Thursday, August 10, 2017 from 9:30 am to 12:00 pm at the Hawaii Kai Retirement & Assisted Living Community at 428 Kawaihae Street. More details about the seminar are available at http://ihara.eventbrite.com, where tickets can also be obtained.

The seminar will focus on senior living options, how to downsize and de-clutter, preparing the home for sale or for rent, and how to increase the value of the home to sell or to rent at the highest price in today's market. Those interested can call The Ihara Team at (808) 201-1006 and talk directly with Irene Burns.

Julie Ihara, co-founder and co-owner of The Ihara Team, says: "We offer regular educational seminars, all of which are free and open to the public. We cater specifically to the local senior community. The latest upcoming seminar is expected to be well attended, and we are really looking forward to it."

The Ihara Team is known for their superior, unparalleled, community service, and specialized industry knowledge. They have developed The Complete Solution (TM), which is designed to help elderly people decide where they want to live. Their unique system is explained in greater detail at http://www.iharateamhawaii.com. Dan Ihara, Julie's husband and co-founder and co-owner of the company, has also launched Declutter Hawaii and Senior Move Managers, essentially offering a full service to senior citizens who want to move.

To date, The Ihara Team has hosted in excess of 600 seminars, which have always been popular. One client said: ?Without a doubt, having the Ihara Team as my REALTOR® in the sale of my mother?s property was a decision I do not regret. Other REALTOR?S® do a lot for their clients but their performance was extraordinary. This was not an easy and routine sale....road bumps along the way included zoning variances, trust issues, preparation of the property, working with siblings... their expertise, patience, mediation skills and willingness, no matter the time (late evenings or early mornings) to provide assistance, and answer questions led to a successful sale.?

In addition, for people who are interested in knowing what their home is worth, the Ihara's provide a free home valuation service that may be used to give you an idea of what your home is worth based on a number of different criteria. The service is not intended to take the place of an appraisal. Please visit http://www.oahuhirealty.com/homevaluation for more information. Alternatively, people can contact the company directly.
