August 16, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Charlotte Home Experts is proud to announce that they have been named the best realtor Charlotte NC has to offer in a community poll. This came after the realtor received a wealth of positive reviews from buyers and sellers alike, and also as a result of the company's unique selling process. As a dedicated realtor, they have devised a process that takes just three steps to complete the selling of a home.

Tiffany Johannes says: "We're very proud to have been named best in Charlotte. We really feel like we're part of the community here and therefore love to work within the realty realm, ensuring that people can settle in this beautiful city without any hassle. And for those who are selling their property, we are dedicated to making the whole process as easy as possible, and we're happy to see that this is being well-received."

The "Sell My House Fast Charlotte" system that Charlotte Home Experts has developed is what really sets the company apart. It follows a very simple three step process that has been proven to be successful again and again. Interestingly, although home sellers only notice three steps, the company has to undertake 152 different steps as part of their VIP Seller Program. The main three steps that sellers and buyers alike notice, meanwhile, are called: Preparations and Expectations; Ready, Set, Go; and The Fun Begins.

Those who have experienced the three step process have been full of praises about it. In fact, this is one of the things that drew the attention of the community poll in the first place. Stan L., for instance, says: "From beginning to end the entire process of selling my home in working with both Diane and Amber was smooth and highly professional. My questions were always answered very quickly and I really liked having access to all the documents and information I needed electronically. They were excellent in working to help me get the best value for my home which sold in record time. Truly a wonderful experienced agent and company to work with. Would highly recommend for anyone looking to buy or sell."
