The popular Colored Pencil Set by Star Infiniti which is back in stock, has added a new bonus which includes two paintbrushes. The two paintbrushes which can be used to feather the colored pencil drawings allows the user to explore his/her artistic side. Feathering is a technique which is often used to soften the edges of the colored pencil drawings. The additional paintbrushes of the pencil set will give the artist another venue to show off his/her skills using the feathering technique.

"The addition of two paintbrushes to our 48 piece Coloring Pencil Set aims to further enhance the artistic side of the user. We aim to give more value to our coloring pencil set and aim to target a wide variety of consumers," says, Esther, Star Infiniti's representative.

Michelle had this to say of her colored pencil pack, "Great colored pencil pack. There is a wide variety of colors, and the carrying case is quite convenient to keep them in."
