August 22, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Ashley Bridget, the fashion accessory brand based in Fort Lauderdale, FL, is happy to announce the launch of their new hair tie bracelet in silver. The product can be purchased at their Amazon storefront as well as their official website.

Ashley Bridget is a brand geared towards creating products that have the right mix of elegance and practicality, with their latest offering being no exception. This skinny hair tie bracelet is an excellent way of wearing one's hair ties without making it look shabby or crude. Instead, the bracelet cuff provides a touch of class that elevates any outfit it is paired with.

According to Scott Hutchison, spokesperson at Ashley Bridget, "Women often wear their hair ties on their wrist as a way of keeping them within reach. By creating a bracelet cuff which stores the hair tie, we at Ashley Bridget have hoped to highlight the thought that beauty can be found in functionality as well. ?

The company specializes in creating jewelry that has a refined aesthetic which is both chic and minimalistic thus creating a line of fashion accessories that can be worn by women of all ages. Besides bangle holders, they also make chokers, anklets, watches, and more.

The new bangle hair tie is available in three different colors - rose gold, gold, and silver. Accompanied by a Certificate of Authenticity and wrapped up in a lovely custom designed box, it makes for a great gift for loved ones.

The product is proving to be a fast hit, with one reviewer on Amazon stating: "This little bangle came in so Handy on my day of shopping. I wore the bangle and placed my hair tie on the outer part. Looked great and I had a hair tie when I needed it!" This elastic holder, along with other products from the brand's fashion line, can be purchased at their Amazon storefront.
