Pensacola, Fla. ? Many people may have heard of the television talk show, ?Tuesday?s with Dan.? The compelling program has been gaining popularity with the help of many high profile guests and by offering insightful advice for today?s entrepreneur. For those who are not familiar with the show, here?s a chance to learn a little bit about it and to get to know the man behind it, Dan Vega.

?Tuesday?s with Dan? is centered around finding success across many fields within the professional world. With a strong balance of education and entertainment, Vega brings in a number of guests to discuss the challenges and triumphs they have faced within their careers. The show has hosted SEC football coaches and players, award winning authors, and even rock stars.

Dan Vega is no stranger to the professional world himself. He has been working as a business coach and entrepreneur for over two decades. Starting his first business venture at 19 years old, he quickly began to branch out. Vega has achieved success in a number of fields including sales, marketing, management, corporate restructuring, and consulting.

Currently in Pensacola, Dan Vega works in the area of business coaching and peruses a number of other roles such as speaking and entrepreneurial ventures. He is driven to help others succeed with their own personal ventures and he draws inspiration from helping people advance and achieve their goals. He conducts a number of trainings, business boot camps, and lectures that have helped many individuals progress in the business world.

Many of Vega's past students still rave over the value of his courses. Here's what one of his students had to say after attending a one-day boot camp:

"Dan's approach and program is far more comprehensive than anything I ever expected. The daylong session flew by in no time. The takeaways I got [were] more than motivational, more than goal oriented, more than [a] business plan or a life plan. The day was complete compilation of all of the above. Dan is a great speaker and he believes in what he knows," said J. Waggoner.

With the experience, expertise, teachings, and methods that Dan Vega possesses and preaches, it is no wonder he has risen to become such a revered mentor in the business community.

Dan Vega Pensacola is a professional speaker and entrepreneur who has had tons of success helping coach others in how to efficiently run their business.
