

New Live Trading Event Event for Traders and Investors to be Held in Singapore

August 23, 2017

August 23, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Rockwell Trading Services LLC, organizer of the new Live Trading Summit, announced their Live Trading Event event will be held in Singapore on August 25-27, 2018. Traders and Investors looking for the latest information on trading can register to attend Live Trading Summit scheduled for August 25-27, 2018.

Rockwell Trading Services LLC is sponsoring this year's event, which will cover key issues such as:

How to Find The Best Stocks ? Markus Heitkoetter, CEO of Rockwell Trading, will show how traders can use the PowerXAnalyzer Software scan more than 13,000 stocks and automatically find the best 3-8 stocks to trade. Traders will learn how to analyze these stocks to find the ones with the highest profit potential.

Options Made Simple ? Options provide enormous leverage, which can quickly grow a trader's account. But when used in the wrong way, options can also wipe out a trading account quickly. Heitkoetter will explain a simple way to trade options to grow your account. Traders will learn how to limit their risk and when to take profits, so that they can grow their account in a systematic way.

How To Grow a Small Account into a Larger One ? During the event, Heitkoetter will present a step-by-step approach on how to grow a small account. Traders with accounts as small as $1,000 will learn how they can use powerful money management approaches to potentially double, triple or even quadruple their accounts.

Full details on the event can be found on the company website at www.rockwelltrading.com.

When asked about the reasons behind creating this event, the host of the event, Markus Heitkoetter said, "I'm excited to bring this event to Singapore. In the past year, we already held 5 successful trading events in the United States, and now we are bringing our powerful trading strategies to Asia."
