September 11, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

O'Neill's Chevrolet Buick in Avon, Connecticut, has announced that they are eagerly anticipating the arrival of the new 2018 Buick Enclave. The dealership says that they, along with many of their customers, are already sold on the newest addition to the Buick lineup.

Sean Sullivan, President and General Manager, says, "The Buick Enclave is one of Buick's best selling vehicles and one we sell a good amount of. We're really excited because of all the updates being made to the Enclave and really the entire Buick model lineup. Buick has been doing a superb job of incorporating the technology people want with updated styling."

According to the Connecticut Buick dealer, the new Enclave offers a host of luxury features including a state of the art navigation system, a total of 10 speakers to enhance the Bose performance sound system, SiriusXM radio, an MP3 decoder, a radio data system, a color touch AM, FM, CD radio with navigation and IntelliLink, and many additional entertainment features. With regards to the operation of the vehicle, it features automatic temperature control, rear air conditioning, memory seats, power driver seat, remote keyless entry, and various other luxury features. Sullivan believes that it is definitely a vehicle that is sure to attract luxury car owners. With a trailer hitch and towing package, it functions as an SUV but drives like a luxury car, according to the dealership.

Customers have also been eagerly anticipating the new Buick's arrival. Previous versions of the vehicle have gained many positive reviews from customers as well as safety reporters. The 2016 Enclave rated 9.7 out of 10 for overall passenger safety and rates more than 8 for all other aspects including comfort, mileage and overall cost. Sullivan says that the dealership fully expects a large number of consumers to visit the dealership to get a look at the new Enclave and welcomes all of those interested to stop by and see the car in person.

Sullivan states, "We're ready to help Buick customers from all over Connecticut, from Hartford to Plainville, New Britain to Granby get the best deal possible and to make sure that they are taken care of long after the sale is made."

The new 2018 Buick Enclave will be seen at the dealership in Avon once it arrives or by visiting their official website at www.oneillschevybuick.com, where updated images as well as an overview of all of the features will also be seen.
