

Charlottesville Custom Home Builder Announces Five Star Review

September 08, 2017

September 08, 2017 -
Cville Real Estate & Construction, a general contractor and custom home builder in Charlottesville, Virginia, recently announced that they have received a new five star review and showcase video from a satisfied client. The review showcase video was published on September 6, 2017 and outlines the services received from the company as well as the overall job that they performed. The customer was extremely happy with the building and construction services provided by the contractor and thus gave a five star review along with a review showcase video, which can be seen at YouTube.

Charlottesville homeowner Rebecca Johnson says, "Cville Real Estate & Construction has been excellent to work with and I would highly recommend them. Our project was very large in nature. Greg provided a very reasonable estimate and has remained on budget throughout the project. He has hired reliable, friendly, knowledgeable tradesmen that have done a superb job and he has stayed in line with the timeline he presented at the beginning of the project. We have been very pleased with his communication and the quality of his work."

The company states that the showcase video can be viewed at https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=uy-WCLUDPxk. It is the latest in a series of positive comments that have been made about their services. The Charlottesville company has been assisting homeowners for a number of years by offering quality construction and renovation services.

Greg Dickerson, CEO of Cville Real Estate & Construction, says, "Collectively the leadership team at Cville Real Estate & Construction have built and remodeled hundreds of custom homes and over a million square foot of commercial space. It's an honor to receive such a glowing review from Ms. Johnson."

Dickerson says that the management and staff at the firm are always happy to see their customers satisfied and they always welcome reviews from customers. He says that they use such feedback to ensure that they are providing customers with the services that they want and to make sure that they are always happy with the services that they receive.
