September 18, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Las Vegas, NV business Rip Toned Fitness is getting known all over the world for its high quality wrist wraps and other fitness equipment. The Fitness on the Weekend website, which can be accessed at fitnessontheweekend.com, has recently cited the wrist wraps as a must buy in 2017. In response, company representatives have expressed their gratitude for having their product recognized that way.

"Our goal was to make the perfect lifting straps and wrist wraps to enable people to take part in exercises," says Mark Pasay from Rip Toned Fitness. "It is incredibly nice to be recognized in this way by Fitness on the Weekend, a respected authority in the world of fitness, and we can't thank them enough."

The Rip Toned wrist wraps have been made better by adding less stiff materials to allow light lifting. Additionally, they now have a lifting straps and wrist wraps combo, which caters to smaller wrists. As their goal has always been to encourage anyone to take part in fitness activities, ensuring that any body type could use the products was at the forefront of their development.

All Rip Toned Fitness products come with a lifetime replacement warranty. Furthermore, customers are provided with a free ebook with every purchase. In so doing, the company has made sure that customers do not just have the best quality products, but also the best value for money. They have also been listed on atopdaily.com, which has also ranked the wrist wraps as among the best in their class.

The wrist wraps have been available on the Amazon marketplace in various countries for some time now, where they have become undisputed bestselling items. They have received in excess of 1,700 reviews on Amazon.com and continue to be ranked as a 4.5 star item. This is further testament to the fantastic quality of the product. In the reviews, people hail the quality of the product, and also that of the company. "A quality product from a customer-oriented company. They are stiff and supportive...", says an Amazon customer.

Pasay adds: "We love hearing from our customers and fitness experts alike, as this keeps us on the right track."
