July 10, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

JGM Properties, a property management company in Bloomington, MN, has added brand new inventory of New Hope warehouse space for rent to their portfolio. While having focused on all facets of commercial real estate facilities for a long time, they have expanded their inventory to include hard to get warehouse spaces in New Hope, Minnesota. This gives their loyal customers more opportunities to do business with their company and work with a brand they trust.

"We offer individual warehouse spaces in various sizes, as well as office and warehouse spaces combined," says Eli Russell from JGM Properties. "Having worked in property management for some time now, we found there was a strong demand for these types of commercial real estate spaces. As such, we have decided to add even more warehouse spaces to our portfolio of properties."

As can be seen on <http://www.jgmproperties.com/property/new-hope-property/>, the inventory of available spaces is quite extensive. JGM Properties offer a number of different units: small and medium sized units as well as office warehouse combination units. All warehouse spaces come with 16' ceilings, and are fitted with both drive-in doors and dock doors. Additionally, the properties are located with easy highway access, conveniently close to areas such as Crystal, Plymouth, St Louis Park, Golden Valley and Maple Grove.

JGM Properties operates across 12 different cities where they manage 22 separate buildings with hundreds of different spaces available. They pride themselves on offering high-quality spaces at affordable rates. Their work in this space helps to support the local economy by ensuring that businesses are well-fitted to thrive.

"Too often, we see businesses rent properties that are way above their budget," adds Eli Russell. "A business location is vital to the success of the enterprise, but if a company cannot actually afford that location, there is no way they will be successful. We offer affordable, high-quality locations to local businesses so they can be more successful."

Those looking to lease New Hope warehouse space will be happy to hear that quite a number of units still remain available. However, it should be noted that demand is high and the properties are quickly being rented. Businesses are encouraged to contact JGM Properties today.
