Mr. Rooter Plumbing of Southeast Georgia, based in Douglas, GA, is the latest addition to the nationwide plumbing company. Mr. Rooter has plumbers operating in most states and is always looking at adding more, so that more communities can be served. The opening of the Douglas GA plumbing office has enabled them to cover all of south west Georgia.

Buddy Carver from Mr. Rooter Plumbing of Southeast Georgia says: "I am very happy to have been able to join the Mr. Rooter Plumbing family. Having worked as a plumber for many years, I have a wealth of experience that I aim to use to serve the local community in Douglas and surrounding area."

When it comes to plumbers Douglas GA is home to a number of different professionals, but only one that is registered with Mr. Rooter Plumbing. In so doing, Mr. Carver instantly raised his profile, as the company places some stringent requirements in terms of customer service and professionalism on its members. Communities in and around Douglas can therefore now rely on a quality plumbing service, including a 24/7 emergency service. In fact, besides emergency services, Mr. Rooter Plumbing offers both residential and commercial plumbing services.

Mr. Rooter already has other offices in Georgia. By adding Douglas to this list, they have virtually covered the entire state. Buddy Carver adds: "Now that I Have joined Mr. Rooter, everyone in Georgia can come to rely on the best plumbing services around."

Those who have used Mr. Rooter plumbers in the past have been full of praise about their experiences. A happy customer says on the company website: "This being my first experience with your company, I was very impressed and satisfied with the services provided. After rescuing me, the technician explained the extended service plan, which I purchased; as well as offering to have the main office contact me about a new purchase and installation quote for both toilets in my condo. I am quite pleased."

When it comes to plumbing Douglas GA residents are encouraged to contact Mr. Rooter Plumbing SEGA as soon as possible.
