

New Website Launched For Family Law Firm

October 10, 2017

October 10, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Karpenski & Schmelkin, a family law firm in Framingham, MA, has announced the launch of their new web site. The site clearly highlights the different services that they offer, which include divorce, child support, custody, property division, and modifications. The law firm has over 30 years combined experience in these areas.

Ann Karpenski, co-owner and co-founder of Karpenski & Schmelkin, says: "We are so happy with our new web site and we really want to extend our thanks and gratitude to our design team. The new site has made it easier than ever for clients to find out what we can do, and to contact us directly should they need legal advice. Family law is a complex and emotive area of law and we feel it is important that people are properly supported through this, and that starts with being more accessible."

The new website also makes it easy for people to schedule a free consultation. Furthermore, it clearly highlights the exact services that they offer, such as divorce, paternity, mediations, adoptions, modifications, and equity issues. The firm currently has two dedicated lawyers, Ann Karpenski and Marc I. Schmelkin, as well as an administration assistant, Emily Turner, who can answer questions.

As part of the new website launch, the firm has also started their Facebook page. This has given them the opportunity to share industry-relevant news, and also to have more direct contact with past and prospective clients. Although only recently launched, many clients have already taken to the Facebook page to leave positive reviews about the help that they have received. Additionally, other legal professionals have highlighted the ability of the legal team at Karpenski & Schmelkin: "While I have never been a client of Marc's, I have had the opportunity and pleasure to work alongside him. I found Marc to be professional and polite in his demeanor, and prompt in his responses. I am impressed with Marc's attention to detail and the principle of integrity that his company was founded on."

People are encouraged to visit the new website and Facebook page for further information, and to contact the firm for any legal help they may need.
