

Attorneys In The News Announces New Partnership With Attorney David K. Easlick

September 20, 2017

September 20, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Los Angeles, CA ? Attorneys In The News, a full service Press Release writing agency for Lawyers, announced a partnership with Attorney David K. Easlick this past week. Mr. Easlick is an expert witness and consultant for Fraternity lawsuits that involve Hazing and Risk Management issues. His goals are to eliminate hazing, sexual abuse, and binge drinking on today's college campuses. Some of David's qualifications include being a litigation lawyer and being part of the Fraternity system, including holding the title of Executive Director of Delta Kappa Epsilon International Fraternity for over twenty-nine years.

David K. Easlick hired Attorneys In The News to support him in spreading news on the latest happenings in his field, cases, and articles that he writes on the subjects. His first release covered the topic of 'Fraternity Hazing Expert Witness and Consultant Banned Unjustly From Fraternal Law Conference'. If readers would like to see his articles or learn more about the work that Mr. Easlick does, they are welcome to visit his Facebook Group for Fraternity Hazing matters.

Online Attorney marketing can be a difficult road to navigate. Directing potential clients to a Law Firm website can be hard with the concentration of competition out there. Attorneys In The News works with Attorneys such as David to gain a leg up on the competition and rise higher on search engines for their selected keywords.
