"Freddie and Sebbie products are made to the highest standards in quality, safety and reliability. If you don't believe us just read what Verified Purchases have to say about our products. We believe in giving the very best to both parent and child."

The Backseat Mirror By Freddie and Sebbie was reportedly designed with parents in mind. Knowing that rear facing car seats are the most safe method for parents to travel with their children in vehicles, the team came up with their unique mirror design in an effort to give parents a way to interact with and see their babies and toddlers while on the go.

The mirror currently sells for $24.97 on Amazon.com, and ships for free. It is described as a luxury mirror suitable for both male and female children. It offers an extra-large window with 360 degree angle adjustability. The product is also said to be easy to install, shatterproof, and designed to fit most headrests. The company has said the following regarding this product and their guarantee for the safety of the children who use them:

"TESTED and RECOMMENDED by Mums and Dads throughout the USA. Our Back Seat Mirror will give any parent that piece of mind they are looking in an instant, while they concentrate on driving safely."

Rear Facing Car Seat Mirror Reviews have been almost entirely positive, with many customers thanking the company for producing a high quality product which helps them view their children while driving. The company offers a no hassle money back guarantee as a customer satisfaction tool, and these reviews seem to justify the passion and drive that the company has while standing firmly behind their product in terms of safety and quality. One such Rear Facing Car Seat Mirror Review says:

"Excellent product. Better quality than those cheap mirrors from the big box stores. I like how it sticks out more than my old one. It makes it better for me to see my child in the mirror. I also love that it can adjust and moves freely so I can have a perfect view of my babies face. It also fits perfectly on the head rest. I have a Honda Odyssey by the way. The mirror also came with a case which I thought was a bonus. A++++."

The company encourages new customers to continue leaving feedback and reviews so that they may continue to offer high quality products to consumers. They also suggest that those who are still unsure about whether this product is for them, visit the review page of their Amazon.com sales account to watch the informative video that one customer made as a testimonial to the product.
