

Rip Toned Elbow Sleeves Recently Released In Italy

September 27, 2017

September 27, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Las Vegas, Nevada based company, Rip Toned Fitness, has recently announced that they have released the popular Rip Toned elbow sleeves onto the Italian market. The elbow sleeves, which were originally launched onto the United States based Amazon market, are now available for purchase on Amazon Italy.

The company states that because their products have become so popular in the United States, and because they have been best sellers on Amazon shortly after their release, they decided that it was time to take them to other markets. In addition to Italy, Rip Toned Fitness products can now be found on Amazon in Canada, Germany, France, and Spain.

Mark Pasay, a representative for the company says, "These are among the most popular elbow sleeves in the United States for weightlifters and we wanted to give people in other countries a chance to try our elbow sleeves as well."

Pasay says that the elbow sleeves became so popular after their initial release in the United States that the company received numerous positive reviews and testimonials. He states that this was when Rip Toned

Fitness decided to launch these products into other markets in an effort to make them a worldwide product. Rip Toned's fitness products are currently the only ones on the market that are endorsed by weightlifting champion Kevin Weiss.

"One of the reasons that they are so popular," Pasay says, "Is because you not only get a top notch product, but you get web content and tutorials as well. We have designed a number of tutorials that will help you to use our products and ensure that you are using them properly, so you can protect yourself from injuries while you are lifting and make the most of every minute that you are lifting."

Pasay says that the company plans to release additional products in the future and states that they are considering releasing these and other products onto additional markets. Those who are interested can learn more about Rip Toned Fitness on their official website or visit them on the Amazon marketplace for a complete listing of the products that they currently offer.

Those who need more information can visit the Rip Toned Fitness page at Amazon.it.
