Rip Toned Fitness is a company in Las Vegas, NV, that has created a number of products to help people get more out of their fitness regimen. These products have all become best selling items, as well as receiving numerous high rankings from independent fitness experts. The company now aims to make their products available the world over, which is why they are proud to announce that the Rip Toned knee sleeves, one of the most popular products of its kind in this country, is now also available in France.

According to Mark Pasay, spokesperson for Rip Toned Fitness: "We want to make sure that everybody all over the world, are able to access the right fitness tools and products to achieve a healthy lifestyle. We are in the process of offering our products to markets in Europe and beyond and are very happy to see that the French market has already responded positively to our knee sleeves."

Rip Toned Fitness has developed a wealth of products to assist in fitness regimens. These include the knee sleeves, elbow sleeves, lifting straps, wrist wraps, and more. Furthermore, they have accessories, such as mugs, beanie hats, and t-shirts available, which are printed with motivational quotes designed to keep people focused on their routine. Not just that, but the company also releases regular pieces of content as well as how-to video tutorials in order to make sure that people build up their knowledge of a healthy and fit lifestyle and know how to use the products properly.

The knee sleeves have only been available in France for a short period of time, but they have already received numerous positive reviews. Mark Pasay adds: "It is good to see that people in France like the same things as people on the domestic market. They appreciate the quality and effectiveness of our products, as well as our customer service and the lifetime warranty that we include with everything that we make."

The knee sleeves can be purchased through Amazon.fr. The French market has already been introduced to a number of their other products as well, including the wrist wraps, fitness belt, fitness straps, and more.
