Albany, N.Y. ? Awards By Walsh & Creative Marketing, a leading shop for embroidery in Albany, NY, has recently went above and beyond to create a nostalgic gift for a fantasy football league.

This year, a special customer of the Awards By Walsh shop tasked the team to polish up an old tarnished cup from years ago, which would be unveiled as a prize to a deserving recipient. The fantasy football league, called the ?Bush League?, was fortunately rewarded with a trophy that breaks the barriers of craftsmanship in the awards industry.

?This was definitely an interesting opportunity to dive in to,? Steven Pesta said. ?We usually design our products from scratch, but being challenged with making something old brand new was a fun and unique experience.

When football season comes around and the nation?s best NFL players gear up for another competitive run, citizens in Albany are preparing as well for a thorough, drawn out fantasy football season. Fantasy football allows for average individuals and sports lovers to come together and compete in online madness.

Thanks to the supplier of medals in Albany, NY, the Bush League has something unique to showcase its awesome season. And thanks to the Bush League, Awards By Walsh has even more experience in custom design to bring to the table.

?We can?t wait for another opportunity like this to arise,? Pesta said. ?We love creating, designing, and most of all, satisfying our customers.?
