Portland, Ore. ? Express Healthcare Professionals, a leading agency for nurse staffing in Portland, OR, is proud to announce the opening of additional office locations around the nation.

The Express Healthcare team is on its way to expansion. With the flagship office being in Portland, OR, Express Healthcare is now developing new offices in additional states, a process that should be completed in Q4 of this year. Similar to when Express Healthcare opened additional offices in Honolulu, HI, Eugene, OR, Olympia, WA, and McAllen, TX, in August of 2016, the team expects this next big move to be a triumph.

Express Healthcare National Clinical Director Christina Muniz said, "Expansion has always been a goal for Express Healthcare and to see that it?s finally in the works is an amazing feeling unto itself."

The additional locations included in the expansion plan are Asheville, NC, Kent, WA, Charleston, WV, Covington, LA, Naples, FL, and Eureka, CA. The healthcare industry can expect to see progressive growth in these cities once the offices are up and running.

This opportunity also allows the management team at the Portland office to help the new branches build a good foundation for immediate success. As one of the leading nursing agencies in Portland, OR, the consulting efforts of the Portland Express Healthcare team will go a long way in ensuring each additional location is ready to open its doors when the time comes.

"As we grow and expand, we hope to help the healthcare industry grow as well by placing our skilled clinicians into good jobs all around the country," Muniz said.
