October 09, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Northwest Hills Cadillac, a dealership in Torrington, CT, is proud to announce its brand new Cadillac specific website, offering information on all things Cadillac. The site has only recently been launched, but has already attracted a lot of positive attention.

Sean Sullivan, President and General Manager of Northwest Hills Cadillac, says: "Cadillac has been releasing some incredible products over the last several years and it's refreshing to see them getting back to what they do best; luxury vehicles. from the ATS coupe to the full-sized Escalade ESV it's easy to see what sets Cadillac apart from the other luxury brands so we wanted to provide an online portal for those shoppers who feel their tastes might be a bit more sophisticated. this helps us to stand out from the competition and truly provide a luxury experience."

Through the new website, people can also view the stock of new and used cars that Northwest Hills has in its Cadillac inventory. Photographs, prices, and specs are all included, so that people will know exactly how much they will be paying, and what they are paying for. Furthermore, they can look at details on obtaining finance for their Cadillac purchase, enabling them to budget properly. Besides selling new and used vehicles, Northwest Hills also offers parts and services.

The company is the preferred dealer in Torrington thanks to their diverse inventory and unmatched service. They have a fantastic reputation because of this, and because of their knowledge on all things Cadillac. All staff in the sales department have been trained to ensure that people get the model that is right for them, and they can answer any questions about any models that are available. Additionally, all used vehicles that the dealer offers are certified, which guarantees their quality.

Meanwhile, the service department of the dealership is also fully trained to deliver any work that needs to be done. This ranges from routine maintenance and service, to critical repairs following accidents. They ensure that servicing a vehicle is a breeze. Similarly, everyone in the parts department works together to ensure that Cadillac owners get the parts they need, at the best price. They even carry authentic Cadillac accessories.
