October 06, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

San Antonio, Texas: Melissa Wiggans, broker and owner of Real Estate Muses was recently awarded as one of Platinum?S Top 50 Agents for 2017. Established in 1999, The Platinum Top 50 Awards Program aims to annually give recognition to the top residential real estate professionals who have exemplified outstanding accomplishments in terms of industry participation, education, sales, and civic leadership. In order to be a Platinum Top 50 awardee, one must not only personify success but also initiative, industry involvement, and philanthropy.

Since 2009 and every year after, Melissa has consistently been given the honor of being a Platinum Top 50 real estate agent for her consistent efforts to uplift her community through various charity projects, and for her top performing team who have been involved in military relocations, luxury real estate, and senior real estate. She demonstrates integrity, professionalism, and competence which is evidenced by feedback from previous clients Donald and Lisa, ?She helped us every step of the way, from first contact while we were still out of state, finding the house when we visited San Antonio, the closing process and day of closing, and she still checks in on us months later. She was also a great help throughout the process. We highly recommend Melissa and her team if you are planning to buy a home.?

Melissa is also a 3 time Five Star Professional winner from Texas Monthly and a 2008 Texas Realtors Leadership Program graduate. She is credited with ?willing to go above and beyond for her clients and does so on a regular basis..?

Growing up in a military family and becoming a San Antonio native eventually led Melissa to helping military families with the challenge of relocating to San Antonio. One family affirms, ?She is a blessing to our military family of five.. Melissa listens, responds, and communicates every time we needed or wanted something. It was so nice to be on the same page when our home and family's well being was in her hands. She is personable and friendly, professional, and proficient in her business...?
