October 10, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Los Angeles, CA: Attorney Robert Brenner successfully settled for $7,500,000 in a case for one of his clients involving a motorcycle versus auto accident. A twenty-five year old motorcyclist proceeding straight on through a street was thrown approximately thirty-five feet and suffered severe injuries when an automobile crossed the intersection and violated the motorcyclist's right of way. Despite being helmeted, the motorcyclist suffered a traumatic head injury, internal injuries, and multiple fractures.

Attorney Robert Brenner stated that the "case involved complex legal and medical issues." However, Mr. Brenner was able to use his experience as one of the best motorcycle accident Attorneys in Los Angeles to overcome these issues and claim the compensation that his client deserved.

Motorcycle accidents can wreak havoc on an individual's life, causing the injured person a life changing amount of both physical and emotional turmoil. For this reason, it is important to locate the best motorcycle accident Attorney in Los Angeles in order to receive proper and full compensation for those injured.

Attorney Robert Brenner can help the wrongfully injured to successfully recover damages from the person responsible, and alleviate the stress of living with the aftermath of a motorcycle accident. Compensation for these damages may include recovery for the past, present, and future costs of medical care, lost wages, property damage, pain and suffering, as well as emotional distress.

Attorney Robert Brenner will hire medical professionals, economists, and life care planners to help properly calculate how much compensation an individual's motorcycle accident claim is truly worth.
