Halloween Newcomer Expects Great Things From Its New Online Presence

New York, NY: Tuesday, October 10, 2017 - Halloween Envy, a newcomer to the online Halloween landscape, announced the launch of a new website. After months of preparation and a soft launch last week, Halloween Envy is already seeing a solid internet presence.

Regarding the company's recent website launch, Halloween Envy developer Carl Austin said, "Getting Halloween Envy off the ground has been one of the proudest moments in my online career. Lots of hours of programming and preparation went into this important project."

The Goal

Halloween Envy is aggressively marketing the new website through social media websites like Twitter and Facebook and is expecting a nice bump in traffic from as the holiday quickly approaches.

Halloween continues to grow in popularity for both retailers and consumers. Over $8 billion is expected to be spent on Halloween costumes, candy, greeting cards, and decorations, with between 20-25% of Halloween sales come from online sites like Halloween Envy.
