

Pensacola Florist KellyCo Welcomes New Driver

October 11, 2017

October 11, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Pensacola FI - A successful small business holds many attributes that make them stand out among the competition. A successful small business must have quality products, consistently great service, friendly and experienced sales service, and a quality reputation supported by hundreds of customers who provide feedback. This Pensacola Florist Shop is steadfast in their commitment to providing customer service.

As an effort to continue to provide excellent customer service to their clients in the Pensacola area KellyCo has hired a new driver, Ray Holmes. One of the many traits that made Ray stand out was his ability to greet and service customers with a smile ? an attribute that is much valued by KellyCo. Ray Holmes has started training with KellyCo on Monday, September 25th.

Michael Paris, owner of KellyCo Flowers and Gifts proclaimed, ?There is one part of a success story that is more important than all the rest?it is the people who make all that happen.?

KellyCo has been servicing Escambia and Santa Rosa Counties with floral and gift needs for every occasion since 1981. Family owned and operated by Michael and Judy Paris, KellyCo is synonymous with the highest quality and service in fresh flowers, silks, balloon bouquets, plants, dish gardens, unique gifts and gift baskets in Pensacola.

Michael Paris demonstrates his appreciation of his outstanding staff members by stating, ?the next time you receive a package, buy a product, or enjoy some service, take a close look at the people who have served you, because they are what makes the small business world go round.?

There are thousands of great small businesses in the country and many successful such businesses in the Pensacola area. Some manufacture products, some provide installation and repair services, some sell products, and some provide important services. KellyCo has ensured their customers that they can continue to expect the excellent customer service they have been providing since 1981 in their new delivery driver Ray Holmes.

KellyCo can be reached at at (850) 438-1981 or via their website at <http://www.kellycoflowers.com/>.
