October 12, 2017 -
Pensacola, Fla. ? As a leading provider of FedEx shipping in Pensacola, FL, it?s imperative that Pack & Ship Business Center lets its customers know about the multitude of hurricane relief efforts made by FedEx.

In light of the recent hurricanes and other natural disasters in Florida, the Pack & Ship team wants to ensure that its neighboring workers and residents are well informed of the available resources out there. FedEx shipping has gone above and beyond this hurricane season to help individuals in not only the United States, but in other bordering countries as well.

?FedEx has taken the initiative to ensure that the people of our country and others are safe and sound in the midst of the terrible storms,? Thomas Armstrong said.

From moving over seven million pounds of relief into San Juan and Boriquen to providing supplies from water, medicine, food, and diapers, FedEx has really sustained a value of safety and urgency during this series of storms. The post office in Pensacola, FL, is proud of what FedEx has done up to this point and firmly believes that the company will continue to provide more generosity in the months ahead.

?We are proud to be able to work with a company that truly values its team members and customers,? Armstrong said. ?When you?re willing to put regular business to the side to provide for a greater cause, it means something special.?
